Mayor Luttrell Continues *Family Life Series

Shelby County Mayor Mark H. Luttrell's Family Life Series resumes this week at an apartment community near the medical district.

Mayor Luttrell, representatives from Shelby County Government and affiliated agencies will present the first of a series of community meetings this month in association with the One Beat organization, a family services non-profit agency.

The first session, an overview of the services provided by the Coalition to End Homelessness, will be held this Wednesday evening, August 7th, at the Legends Park Community meeting room at 198 North Pauline at 6 p.m.

"Our goal is to ensure citizens have a better understanding of these important services. It's vital that people get to personally know representatives of these programs so they can be easily accessed," said Shelby County Mayor Mark H. Luttrell, Jr.

"These sessions will certainly benefit our organization and help residents in and near the Legends Park community. We appreciate them allowing us to use their facility for the Family Life Series," said Ms. Phyllis Cash of One Beat Inc.

Here's the complete schedule of events. All programs start at 6 p.m.

- August 14th – Family Safety Center - an overview of services provided for crime victims and others needing special assistance
- August 21st - Shelby County Crime Victims Center – a program about preventing domestic violence and how crime victims are assisted through the criminal justice process
- August 28th – Just Care Family Network – staff will give a presentation about helping children and youth affected by crime and violence

The Mayor's Family Life Series is available to civic groups, faith-based organizations or community agencies. To schedule the Mayor's Family Life Series, call the Shelby County Public Affairs Office at (901) 222-2322.
